P R E F A C E

In 1833 Morgan County, Missouri, was formed from the southern portion of Cooper County. The courthouse burned in 1887; however the marriage records were not affected.

This compilation covers the first and second volumes of marriage records that are in the courthouse at Versailles, Missouri. There is an overlapping time period of 1860 to 1875 between the two volumes. How or why this happened remains unknown. Anyone wishing to locate the original marriage entry should check both volumes.

It was not mandatory for a marriage to be recorded at the courthouse. Since many of the marriage services were performed by circuit riders, there may be a large span of time between the actual date of the marriage and the date it was recorded. Because the recording of marriages was so haphazard, some never were recorded or may be recorded in another county.

The following abbreviations were used to indicate the titles of the officiants performing the marriage rites or the dates involved. All pertinent genealogical information that may have been recorded at the time the marriage was filed (ages, relationships, witnesses, and residence other than Morgan County) have been indicated. A surname index is included in this compilation.

(MG)	Minister/Preacher
(MD)	Marriage Date
(RD)	Recorded Date
(JP)	Justice of the Peace
(W)	Witness
(CLRK)	Clerk
(JDG)	Judge
(PM)	Place marriage was performed
(CP)	Catholic Priest
(UK)	Job Title unknown

I did not find my ancestor within these records, but hopefully you will find yours between these pages.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Special thanks to the staff of the County Clerk's office at the courthouse in Versailles, Missouri, and to the staff of the Missouri State Archives, Jefferson City.

DEDICATION

Dedicated to the memory of Susannah Addleman who married Isaac Needham December 7, 1814, Maury County, Tennessee, and moved to the Cape Girardeau area of Missouri; and to all the Jacob Eddlemons who helped to settle this state.
